

Week 12, Lecture 2

Today we will look at three sorting algorithms:

1. Selection sort (find the next min and place it as the first element of the next smaller sublist)
2. Insertion sort (this is what you do to sort a hand of playing cards)
3. Merge Sort (this sort is used for very large files on disk, because a lot of copying is involved; this is a RECURSIVE sort).